

July 29, 2019

Dear New Economics Graduate Student:

Welcome to the Economics Department at Binghamton! Our department is located on the 9th, 10th and 11th floors of the Library Tower, the tallest building on campus. This letter will include information about arrival, orientation, and what to know before you get here.

Courses: The Economics Department will be registering you for your courses. Here are some helpful links about courses (see below.) If you have any questions about the courses you will be taking, please email us!

- <http://www.binghamton.edu/about/university-calendar.html> - a link to the FALL 2019 academic calendar
- <http://bulletin.binghamton.edu/> - where you can link to the Bulletin sections describing our programs

Orientation events: